Archery GB qualified coaches lead Redditch & Bromsgrove Company of Archers (RBCoA) Courses.

Participants are covered by Archery GB liability insurance for the duration of the course after which they may join the club – for which there is a membership fee.

Suitable beginners' equipment is supplied and is included in the cost of course.

The Club has a Child Protection policy in place. The main provision is that juniors must be accompanied by a parent or a person 18 or over in loco parentis while they are under instruction. For participants to fully understand good shooting posture the coaching will include a minor tactile element.

We will do our best to secure your data which will be automatically shared with the Secretary, Treasurer, Coaching Organiser and coaches active on the course. Data will only be used within the club to operate the course and deleted on completion unless you join the club. No marketing will be actioned.
